Imran's sons say incarcerated PTI founder being kept in isolation

The sons of incarcerated PTI founder Imran Khan, Kasim and Sulaiman, have stated that their father is being kept in isolation in jail, stating that these were "clear torture tactics".

The two made the remarks in an interview with British journalist Mehdi Hasan, a four-minute preview of which is available to the public on Zetov's website. The full interview is behind a pay wall.

As court-ordered prison visits stay blocked, Imran's family and party have expressed concerns about the conditions in which he is being kept inside the prison. A United Nations' special rapporteur has also warned that Imran is being held in conditions that could amount to inhuman or degrading treatment.

In the interview with Hasan, Kasim and Sulaiman, were asked about the government's claims of treating Imran like a "prince" during his incarceration.

"Couldn't be less true," replied Kasim. He said that Imran was being held in a cell that was six feet by eight inches, "barely enough to stand".

"The conditions are awful. He is washing himself in brown, murky water. And the food he has is - he is not the one to complain - but it's apparently dreadful. To be a prince is far from it," he said.

Kasim also recalled Imran's recent meeting with his sister Uzma, saying the former premier was "pretty furious from what we have heard". "He was just unhappy with the complete isolation. They're not even allowing guards to speak to him because they want total isolation from any other person just to try and break him," he said.

"So it's all very clear torture tactics," he said.

During the interview, Hasan also asked the two about the last time they were able to speak to their father.

In response, Sulaiman said he last spoke to Imran "at the end of July". AGENES

Water flow stabilises in Chenab after touching record low

The water level in the River Chenab at Marala has risen following a marked reduction witnessed at the site between December 10 and December 16.

During the aforementioned period, the water level at the site was at its lowest in the last 10 years.

Pakistan has said that India first emptied the Baghlar Dam and then refilled it.

It has further said that under the Indus Waters Treaty, India cannot release the water it has stored.

Later, the country also took up the matter with India's Indus Water Commissioner.

However, on December 17, water level in the river began to rise again and on December 19, it became normal.

According to the Punjab Irrigation Department, presently the flow of water in the river is between 4,505 cuses and 6,494 cuses, and that there will be a close monitoring of the water level in future.

On Friday, Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Senator Ishaq Dar had said that attempts by India to divert water threatened peace and stability in South Asia, besides being a threat to Pakistan's food security.

Ishaq Dar held an urgent briefing for foreign diplomats in Islamabad, during which the Foreign Minister maintained that India had consistently attempted to undermine the Indus Waters Treaty in a systemic manner.

The foreign minister said "We witnessed in April this year India's unilateral abeyance of the Indus Waters Treaty... But what we are witnessing now is material breaches by India that strike at the heart of the Indus Waters Treaty with escalating consequences both for regional stability and sanctity of international law."

On Thursday, the Pakistan Foreign Office said it had sought a clarification from India via a letter over a sudden variation in the Chenab River's water flow.

Ishaq Dar said that Pakistan would not compromise on its water rights as Indian actions posed a serious threat to peace and stability in South Asia.

He made it crystal clear that stopping or diverting water will amount to war crimes. "India's recent move is a clear example of using water as a weapon," he added.

India's avoidance of conflict resolution is a violation of international law, the minister said and added "We have observed unusual, abrupt variations in the flow of the Chenab River twice this year. These were observed from April 30 to May 21 and Dec 7 to Dec 15. These variations in water flow are of extreme concern to Pakistan as they pose to the unilateral release of water by India into the Chenab River. India has released this water without any prior notification or any data or information sharing with Pakistan as required under the treaty."

Dar said "India's manipulation of water has prompted our Indus water commissioner to write a letter to his Indian counterpart seeking clarification on the matter as provided in the Indus Waters Treaty."

He further said that India's most recent action clearly exemplifies the weaponization of water to which Pakistan has been consistently drawing attention of the international community.

"India's manipulation of water at a critical time of our agricultural cycle directly threatens the life and livelihood as well as the food and economic security of our citizens," he stressed.

Ishaq Dar said Pakistan expected India to respond to the queries raised by the country's Indus water commissioner, refrain from any unilateral manipulation of river flows, and fulfil all its obligations in letter and spirit under the Indus Waters Treaty provisions. "Recent violations of the treaty by India are just one example. India has consistently attempted to undermine the treaty in a systemic manner," he added.

The minister said India's construction of hydropower projects such as Kishanganga and Ratle involved design features that violated the treaty's technical specifications. "India continues to build illegal dams in sheer disregard of the treaty obligations to impose fair accoutpli. With the building of dams, India capacity to store and manipulate water is also increasing which endangers Pakistan's security, economy, and the livelihood of 240 million people," he elaborated.

Dar said India had halted sharing information, hydrological data, and joint oversight required by the treaty, which had exposed Pakistan to floods and droughts.

"Such illegal and irresponsible Indian actions have all the potential to trigger a humanitarian crisis in Pakistan. If India is allowed to violate the treaty and obligations under the treaty with impunity, we are setting a very dangerous precedent," he added.

coordinating efforts between the prime minister's office, the Foreign Ministry, the Information Ministry and the military's media wing, ISPR.

He said the prime minister publicly offered a fair and impartial investigation into the Pahalgam incident and that diplomatic engagement was pursued in parallel with regular media briefings.

Information, he said, was shared in real time across institutions and provided promptly to Pakistani broadcasters and international media organizations.

Tarar praised Pakistan's media for responsibly broadcasting official information, adding that international outlets leaned on Islamabad's account of events as it was backed by verifiable facts.

Domestically, he said Pakistan's government stressed political unity during the crisis, while India's political polarisation undermined the coherence of its messaging.

Tarar said Pakistan relied heavily on digital tools to counter misinformation. As Indian authorities restricted Pakistani YouTube channels and commentaries, Pakistan responded by placing paid digital advertisements inside India, allowing Pakistani content to reach Indian audiences directly. AFP

Hijab snatching: Tarar calls out India's moral bankruptcy, extremism

Minister for Information and Broadcasting Attallah Tarar has strongly criticized India over a hijab-snatching incident in Bihar, calling it a reflection of rising Islamophobia and intolerance.

In an interview with WE News English on Saturday, the information minister said that a deeply unfortunate incident had come to light, pointing to the case of a Muslim medical graduate allegedly forced to remove her veil.

He said that India was "suffering from moral bankruptcy, extreme polarization and violent extremism," adding that such conduct by a senior political leader Bihar Chief Minister

Nitish Kumar, was "highly condemnable."

Tarar further described the incident as an escalation of escalating Islamophobia, driven by propaganda and distorted narratives.

He noted that Foreign Office had formally condemned the incident, which prompted a diplomatic response from Islamabad.

Emphasizing that there could be "no justification" for such an act, Tarar said such episodes should not be viewed in isolation, as they are often tied to organized propaganda and distorted narratives amplified through digital platforms. Arguing that such incidents are often accompanied by organized propaganda and distorted narratives, amplified across digital platforms.

The Minister said Pakistan has been subjected to sustained information warfare from India, especially during periods of heightened tension between the two nuclear-armed neighbours. He argued that misinformation and exaggerated claims are increasingly deployed to shape both domestic and international opinion.

Referring to the confrontation earlier this year, which Pakistan officially termed Maska-e-Haq, Tarar said the information sphere emerged as a key battleground, alongside diplomatic and military pressures.

He alleged that false and misleading claims were being circulated widely from Indian media and online sources during the crisis.

Tarar said India's lack of a coordinated information strategy allowed inaccurate reports to circulate, ultimately undermining New Delhi's international credibility.

He contrasted this with Pakistan's approach, which he said centred on the timely release of verified information. Tarar noted that during the confrontation, Pakistan pursued a unified communication strategy, coordinating efforts between the prime minister's office, the Foreign Ministry, the Information Ministry and the military's media wing, ISPR.

He said the prime minister publicly offered a fair and impartial investigation into the Pahalgam incident and that diplomatic engagement was pursued in parallel with regular media briefings.

Information, he said, was shared in real time across institutions and provided promptly to Pakistani broadcasters and international media organizations.

Tarar praised Pakistan's media for responsibly broadcasting official

- 9.3 Bidders shall submit the required Bid Security, in the amount and form specified in the Data Sheet, along with their Technical Proposal. The Bid Security shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the estimated value of the Assignment. - 16.5 The Procuring Agency shall, at this Technical Proposals opening, publicly open and read out all Bids (Technical Proposals only) received by the Bid Submission Deadline at the date, time and place specified in the Data Sheet in the presence of Bidders' designated representatives, who choose to attend.
- 16.6 If the Technical Proposal and Financial Proposal (or any part thereof) are submitted together in one PDF file, other than as specified in the Instructions to Consultants, the entire Bid may be rejected. If any document required to be submitted with the Technical Proposal, is submitted with the Financial Proposal, or if any document required to be submitted with Financial Proposal is submitted with the Technical Proposal, such document shall not be considered for evaluation and may also form the basis of rejection of a Bid.
- 16.7 The Financial Proposals shall remain secured and unopened on the SPPRA EPADS until the specified date and time of their opening, as communicated in advance by the Procuring Agency to the Bidders.

16.8 Only Technical Proposals which are read out and recorded during the Bid opening shall be considered for evaluation as per the requirements of the RFP Document. No Bid shall be rejected at the time of opening of Technical Proposals except for late Bids, in accordance with ITC Clause 16.4.

Bidders' representatives who are present shall be requested to sign the record. The omission of a Bidder's signature on the record shall not invalidate the contents and effect of the record.

17. Proposals Evaluation

17.1 From the time the Proposals are opened to the time the Contract is awarded, Bidders should not contact the Procuring Agency or any of its officials or evaluators on any matter related to their Technical and/or Financial Proposal, except for formally seeking or providing clarifications as permitted under this RFP. Any effort by a Bidder to influence the Procuring Agency in the examination, evaluation, ranking of Proposals, or recommendation for award of Contract may result in the immediate rejection of that Bidder's Proposal and may also lead to other penalties as per SPP Rules.

17.2 Evaluators of Technical Proposals shall not have access to the Financial Proposals until the technical evaluation process, including any required approvals, is formally concluded and the results announced.

18. Evaluation of Technical Proposals

18.1 The evaluation committee, appointed by the Procuring Agency, shall evaluate the Technical Proposals based on their responsiveness to the Terms of Reference and by applying the evaluation criteria, sub-criteria, and point system specified in the Data Sheet. Each responsive Proposal will be given a technical score (St). A Proposal shall be rejected at this stage if it fails to achieve the minimum technical qualifying score indicated in the Data Sheet or is found to be non-responsive to material requirements of the RFP Document.

In the case of Quality-Based Selection (QBS), Selection Based on Consultant's Qualifications (CQS), and Single-Source Selection (SSS), the highest-ranked Consultant or the firm selected on a single-source basis (as applicable per the selection method) is invited to negotiate its Proposal and the Contract, based on both the Technical Proposal and the (subsequently opened) Financial Proposal submitted.

Public Opening and Evaluation of Financial Proposals: (Applicable for Least Cost Selection (LCS), Quality and Cost-Based Selection (QCBS), and Fixed Budget Selection (FBS) Methods Only)

18.2 After the technical evaluation is completed and approved, the Procuring Agency shall notify in writing those Bidders whose Proposals have secured the minimum qualifying technical score, informing them of the date, time, and location for the public opening of Financial Proposals. A reasonable time shall be allowed for Bidders' representatives to attend the meeting for the opening of Financial Proposals. Bidders' attendance at the opening of Financial Proposals is optional.

18.3 Financial Proposals of those Bidders whose Technical Proposals failed to meet the eligibility criteria or did not secure the minimum qualifying technical score shall be returned unopened to them after the bid validity period expired or Contract awarded to the successful Bidder.

19. Evaluation of Financial Proposals

19.1 Financial Proposals shall be opened publicly in the presence of the Bidders designated representatives who choose to attend. At the opening, the names of the Bidders whose Technical Proposals met the minimum qualifying score, their technical scores, and the presence of their Financial Proposal will be announced. The Financial Proposal of each technically qualified Bidder will then be inspected to confirm that it has remained sealed and unopened. These Financial Proposals will then be opened one by one. The Bidder's name and total proposed Bid Price from each Financial Proposal shall be read aloud and recorded.

19.2 The Bid Evaluation Committee will examine the submitted Financial Proposals to confirm they are complete and to correct any computational errors. When correcting computational errors:

- (a) In case of a discrepancy between a partial amount (sub-total or unit price multiplied by quantity) and the total amount, the partial amount or the result of the unit price multiplication shall prevail, and the total amount shall be corrected accordingly, unless, in the opinion of the Bid Evaluation Committee, there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in a unit price, in which case the line item total as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected.
- (b) In case of a discrepancy between amounts in words and amounts in figures, the amount in words will prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail subject to (a) above.
- (c) Activities, services, and items described in the Technical Proposal but not priced in the Financial Proposal shall be assumed to be included in the prices of other activities, services, or items. No separate payment will be made for items not priced.

19.3 Least Cost Selection (LCS) Method: If the LCS method is specified in the Data Sheet, the Bid from the technically qualified Bidder found to have the lowest evaluated Financial Proposal (after correction of any arithmetical errors) shall be deemed the Most Advantageous Bid and accepted for award, subject to any required verifications.

19.4 Quality and Cost-Based Selection (QCBS) Method: If the QCBS method is specified in the Data Sheet, the lowest evaluated Financial Proposal (Fm) from a technically qualified Bidder shall be awarded the maximum financial score (Sf) of 100 points. The financial scores (Sf) of the other technically qualified Financial Proposals shall be computed as indicated in the Data Sheet, typically utilizing the formula: $Sf=100 \times Fm/F$, where F is the evaluated price of the Financial Proposal under consideration. Proposals shall subsequently be ranked according to their combined technical (St) and financial (Sf) scores, using the weights (T = the weight assigned to the Technical Proposal; P = the weight assigned to the Financial Proposal; wherein T + P = 100%) indicated in the Data Sheet. The combined score (S) shall be calculated as follows: $S = (S_t \times T/100) + (S_f \times P/100)$. The Bidder achieving the highest combined technical and financial score (S) shall be deemed to have submitted the Most Advantageous Bid and shall be invited for negotiations or Contract signing, as applicable.

19.5 Fixed-Budget and Quality-Based Selection Method: In the instance of Fixed-Budget and Quality-Based Selection, the Procuring Agency shall select the Bidder that submitted the highest-ranked Technical Proposal.

20. Negotiations

20.1 Negotiations shall be conducted on the date and at the address stipulated in the Data Sheet. The invited Bidder shall, as a prerequisite for attendance at said negotiations, confirm the availability of all Key Professional Staff enumerated in its Proposal. Failure to satisfy such a requirement may result in the Procuring Agency proceeding to negotiate with the next-ranked Bidder. Appendix. Financial Negotiations – Breakdown of Remuneration Rates

(Not to be used when cost is a factor in the evaluation of Proposals)

1. Review of Remuneration Rates

1.1 The remuneration rates for staff are made up of salary, social costs, overheads, fee that is profit, and any premium or allowance paid for Assignments away from headquarters. To assist the firm in preparing financial negotiations, a Sample Form giving a breakdown of rates is attached (no financial information should be included in the Technical Proposal). Agreed breakdown sheets shall form part of the negotiated contract.

1.2 The Procuring Agency is charged with the custody of funds from Government of Sindh and is expected to exercise prudence in the expenditure of these funds. The Procuring Agency is, therefore, concerned with the reasonableness of the firm's Financial Proposal, and, during negotiations, it expects to be able to review audited financial statements backing up the firm's remuneration rates, certified by an independent auditor. The firm shall be prepared to disclose such audited financial statements for the last three years, to substantiate its rates, and accept that its proposed rates and other financial matters are subject to scrutiny. Rate details are discussed below.

i. Salary: This is the gross regular cash salary paid to the individual in the firm's home office. It shall not contain any premium for work away from headquarters or bonus.

ii. Social Costs: Social costs are the costs to the firm of staff's non-monetary benefits. These items include, inter alia, social security including pension, medical and life insurance costs, and the cost of a staff member being sick or on vacation. In this regard, the cost of leave for public holidays is not an acceptable social cost nor is the cost of leave taken during an Assignment if no additional staff replacement has been provided. Additional leave taken at the end of an Assignment in accordance with the firm's leave policy is acceptable as a social cost.

iii. Cost of Leave: The principles of calculating the cost of total days leave per annum as a percentage of basic salary shall normally be as follows:

$$\text{Leave cost as per percentage of salary}^{35} = \frac{\text{Total days leave} \times 100}{[365 - w - ph - v - s]}$$

It is important to note that leave can be considered a social cost only if the Procuring Agency is not charged for the leave taken.

iv. Overheads: Overhead expenses are the firm's business costs that are not directly related to the execution of the Assignment and shall not be ³⁵ Where w = weekends, ph = public holidays, v = vacation, and s = sick leave.

- reimbursed as separate items under the contract. Typical items are home office costs (partner's time, nonbillable time, time of senior staff monitoring the project, rent, support staff, research, staff training, marketing, etc.), the cost of staff not currently employed on revenue-earning projects, taxes on business activities and business promotion costs. During negotiations, audited financial statements, certified as correct by an independent auditor and supporting the last three years' overheads, shall be available for discussion, together with detailed lists of items making up the overheads and the percentage by which each relates to basic salary. The Procuring Agency does not accept an add-on margin for social charges, overhead expenses, etc., for staff who are not permanent employees of the firm. In such case, the firm shall be entitled only to administrative costs and fee on the monthly payments charged for subcontracted staff.
- v. Fee or Profit: The fee or profit shall be based on the sum of the salary, social costs, and overhead. If any bonuses paid on a regular basis are listed, a corresponding reduction in the profit element shall be expected. Fee or profit shall not be allowed on travel or other reimbursable expenses, unless in the latter case an unusually large amount of procurement of equipment is required. The firm shall note that payments shall be made against an agreed estimated payment schedule as described in the draft form of the contract.
 - vi. Away from Headquarters Allowance or Premium: Some Consultants pay allowances to staff working away from headquarters. Such allowances are calculated as a percentage of salary and shall not draw overheads or profit.
 - vii. Subsistence Allowances: Subsistence allowances are not included in rates, but are paid separately and in local currency. No additional subsistence is payable for dependents-subsistence rate shall be same for married and single team members.
 - viii. Standard rates for the particular country may be used as reference to determine subsistence allowances.

2. Reimbursable Expenses

- 2.1 Financial negotiations shall further focus on such items as out-of-pocket expenses and other reimbursable expenses. These costs may include, but are not restricted to, cost of surveys, equipment, office rent, supplies, international and local travel, computer rental, mobilization and demobilization, insurance, and printing. These costs may be either unit rates or reimbursable on the presentation of invoices, in foreign or local currency.

3. Procuring Agency Guarantee

- 3.1 The Payments to the firm, including payment of any advance based on cash flow projections covered by a Procuring Agency guarantee, shall be made according to an agreed estimated schedule ensuring the Consultant regular payments in local and foreign currency, as long as the services proceed as planned.

1. PROJECTS BACKGROUND

The livestock sector is an important sector of Sindh's agriculture mix and holds much value in the rural socio-economic system. A growing population, expanding economy, and rising demand of livestock products in the domestic as well as international market put pressure on the domestic supply of livestock products. Conducive environments for raising livestock, farming of animals holds comparative advantage for production. The livestock sector has immense potential to improve the socio-economic conditions of rural Sindh and provide livelihoods for millions of its poor inhabitants, if managed effectively.

The Livestock & Fisheries Department, Government of Sindh, owns five (5) major livestock farms ('Livestock Farms'), as detailed below:

- i. Livestock Experiment Station, Karachi: The farm acreage is 535.03 acres and mainly red Sindhi cattle breed is situated at farm (24.853308,67.160714);
- ii. Red Sindhi Cattle Breeding Farm, Tando Muhammad Khan: The farm acreage is 2483.16 acres (TMK25°02'20.4"N68°28'18.9"E);
- iii. Livestock Experiment Station, Nabisar Road, Umar Kot: The farm acreage is 4270.08 acres and mainly Thari cattle breed is situated at farm (25.044299,69.542584);
- iv. Livestock Development & Research Farm, Rohri: The farm acreage is 819.39 acres and mainly Kundi Buffaloes breed is situated at farm (27.6930910,68.9804610);
- v. Kamori Goat Farm Dadu: The Farm acreage is 82.18 acres and mainly Kamori Goat breed is situated at farm (26.708235,67.7766320);

These Livestock Farms were basically set up to conserve the local livestock breeds and to reproduce high quality animals using modern technologies. Since breed maintenance and improvement play a vital role in productivity, the contribution of these livestock farms has not been up to desired level, hence the public resources employed have not produced desired expected results.

Livestock Farms can greatly contribute to the rural economic development substantially as success of these farms can be replicated by the small and medium farmers in the province. The vast landholding of these farms is highly under-utilized and there is a great scope of diversified facilities related to livestock sector. Due to vast landholding of these farms, the diversified facilities may include but not limited to artificial insemination which will lead to breed improvement, cultivation of green fodder and other livestock processing facilities recommended by the Consultant after thorough feasibility of the Livestock Farms.

The present strategy of the Government of Sindh is to encourage the private sector to invest in the livestock business. It aims at providing an enabling environment for its private sector-led development initiative. In a nutshell, the livestock sector offers greater opportunities to investors and market players to undertake farming projects and tap opportunities to earn mark-ups on their investments. Plentiful opportunities are available in the farming business and the ancillary industries to integrate and produce high value-added products that would not only cater to domestic needs of a large customer base but may also provide enhanced opportunities for exporting them to the international markets where food security is a rising concern.

2. PROJECTS CONCEPTUALIZATION

The Projects had been conceived by the Livestock & Fisheries Department, Government of Sindh (the 'Procuring Agency'), in line with its strategic objectives to preserve the local livestock breeds and to reproduce high quality animals using modern technologies. Since breed maintenance and improvement play a vital role in productivity, the contribution of these Livestock Farms has not been up to desired level, hence public resources employed have not produced desired expected results. Initially, the Procuring Agency, through the Finance Department, submitted the Projects proposal through Note for Chairman PPP Policy Board, which accorded approval to access the project development facility (PDF) funding for engaging transaction advisors as provided under Section 5 of the Sindh PPP Act, 2010.

In this regard, the Procuring Agency now invites the sealed proposals from the Eligible Bidders or Consultants (individual firms or Consortia, as the case may be) to conduct the feasibility study and provide the transaction advisory services for the development of Livestock Farms ('Project') under public-private partnership mode (the 'Assignment') following the Sindh Public Procurement Rules, 2010 (the 'SPP Rules').

3. PROJECTS RATIONALE AND OBJECTIVES

The Projects objectives are to:

- Upgrade and modernize existing Livestock Farms, being considered nerve centers of livestock activity operated on primitive pattern to convert them into model farms by the application of latest technology and management practices;
- Develop and conserve indigenous breeds by introducing elite (superior) germplasm to improve the quality of the herd, enhancing desirable characteristics through scientific research programs;
- Introduce the latest technologies in the livestock sector to achieve the goal of establishing and maintaining high-yielding herds;
- Establish ancillary industries within the livestock sector to integrate production and create high value products;
- Evaluate the need for tenancy reduction or elimination for optimal utilization of land to its core purposes; and
- Transform Livestock Farms into model farms that utilize mixed farming principles. Research and revenue generation will be the primary goals of these model farms.

4. ASSIGNMENT SCOPE
