ANNEXURE – ‘A’

SCOPE OF WORK

Air Traffic Controllers and ATC Assistants (sitting side by side) perform Air Traffic Services on 24 Hours basis in Air Traffic Services Units. The job of Air Traffic services demands continuous monitoring through multiple screens and gadgets with extensive monitoring and vigilance. Air Traffic controllers and staff working night shifts face significant challenges due to the nature of their job, which requires sustained attention and quick decision-making. Moreover, circadian disruption leads to fatigue and decreased alertness, resultantly needs the workload and stress management. Along with the other contra measures, availability of night refreshment to the ANS Officials will help to boost the low sugar levels and ultimately will help in fatigue risk management.

a) Provision of Night Refreshments for On-Duty ATS Officials at Tower

- i) The contractor shall be responsible for the provision of fresh, hygienic, and nutritious night refreshments for on-duty Air Traffic Services (ATS) officials at Tower as per the schedule and terms detailed below. The objective is to ensure that air traffic controllers remain alert and well-supported during night duties, considering the critical and sensitive nature of their work.

1. Delivery and Distribution

- ▶ Refreshments shall be delivered directly to ATS unit at the ATC Tower at MIAP, between 2200 hrs and 2330 hrs. In no case shall delivery be delayed beyond 2330 hrs.
- ▶ The contractor must ensure that the refreshments are handed over at the ATS unit without any delay or deviation from the agreed schedule.
- ▶ Any delay in delivery may render the refreshment unusable, and repeated non-compliance may result in termination of the contract.

2. Quantity and Verification

- ▶ The contractor shall ensure the provision of 03 to 04 distinct night refreshment menus, which shall be routinely rotated to avoid repetition and maintain variety. Each menu shall be delivered in proper, sealed packaging and must include the following components: one snack item, one dessert, one beverage, along with tissue paper and disposable utensils (as required based on the menu). The contractor shall be fully responsible for the design and composition of each menu, including the selection of items, nutritional value, portion size (net weight of each item), certifications, quality, hygiene standards, and overall presentation. These specifications shall form a critical component of the technical evaluation criteria during the assessment of bids.
- ▶ The contractor shall provide refreshments strictly in accordance with the signed attendance list of night duty ATS officials.
- ▶ The attendance list will be provided and duly signed by the Team Leader, ATS, and will serve as the official basis for quantity and billing.
- ▶ Each delivery must be verified and counter-signed by the officer on duty.

3. Quality, Hygiene, and Food Safety

- ▶ All refreshment items must be:
 - a) Freshly prepared, clean, and of high nutritional value.

- b) Packing must be sealed, tamper-proof, free from contamination, and prepared in hygienic facilities.
- c) Each food item shall clearly display the following information on its label:
 - i) Title/Name of the item
 - ii) Ingredients list
 - iii) Allergen information
 - iv) Production batch number (for traceability)
 - v) Manufacturing date
 - vi) Expiry date
 - vii) Name and address of the production facility

- ▶ Food shall be prepared in licensed kitchens complying with local Food Authority Regulations.
- ▶ All food handlers must undergo medical fitness examinations every six months and records shall be available for inspection.
- ▶ Delivery vehicles shall be sanitized daily and maintained in hygienic condition.
- ▶ The contractor must comply with all applicable food safety regulations, quality standards, and health certifications as enforced by local, provincial, or federal food authorities.

4. Inspection and Monitoring

- ▶ The Tender Opening Committee (TOC) shall include a Medical Representative (Doctor) to ensure health and quality standards.
- ▶ Prior to award, the listed items shall be sample tested and verified by the TOC.
- ▶ Random Inspections shall be conducted by ANS / Medical Wing to verify quality, hygiene and taste.
- ▶ Non-compliance or substandard quality shall result in a Corrective Action Notice (CAN) and may attract penalties.

5. Data Management and Documentation

- ▶ The contractor shall maintain proper records of:
 - ▶ Attendance lists (signed by the Team Leader ATS)
 - ▶ Delivery logs with time stamps and signatures
 - ▶ Batch tracking and production records
 - ▶ These records must be submitted along with the monthly invoice for verification and audit purposes.

6. Staff and Contact Information

- ▶ The contractor must provide a complete list of personnel responsible for food delivery and Supervisor, along with name, designation and contact number(Form-D)
- ▶ All staff must be medically fit and trained in food safety and hygiene.

7. Rejection and Replacement Policy

- ▶ Team Leader ATS reserves full authority to accept or reject any refreshment item if:
 - a) It is found expired, substandard, or not meeting quality expectations
 - b) It lacks proper labeling or required information
- ▶ In such cases, the contractor shall arrange prompt replacement without any additional cost or delay.
- ▶ Repeated quality issues or non-compliance will lead to termination of the contract.

8. Safety and Redundancy Measures

PROVISION OF NIGHT / LIGHT REFRESHMENT FOR ATC / ANS OFFICERS / OFFICIALS AT MIAP MULTAN

- ▶ Due to the sensitive nature of Air Traffic Control operations, the contractor must provide two types of refreshments from different production batches each night. This is to ensure that in case of any food safety issues, only a limited number of officials are affected.
- ▶ Strict batch control and documentation must be maintained and made available for inspection upon request.
